Jean Jacques Moyson

Jean Jacques Moyson is 58 years old, has been a part of the maritime industry for more than 30 years. He is married, has two adult children, and one granddaughter.

Upon earning a degree in applied economies, JJM began his career at Noord Natie Stevedoring in Antwerp, working within the commercial function of the organization. By 1989, he was Commercial Director for containers, break-bulk and ro-ro cargo. That same year, JJM was offered the opportunity to become a partner-shareholder.

JJM pushed his vision of becoming a major container terminal operator, through a merger with Noord Natie's competitor, the market leader, Hessenatie. After lengthy negotiations, the Noord Natie/ Hessenatie (HNN) project was realized. Due to company's importance in the North-West European port scene, many international companies wanted to team-up with HNN.

From 2002 until 2009 JJM remained the Director Sales and Marketing for the container division of PSA HNN in Antwerp.

After many years of mergers and integration, and ultimately diverging strategies, JMM decided to look for other opportunities.
